

John Doe

jdoe@ucsd.edu | (111)-111-1111

Illustrator

Passionate about learning and applying various culture elements in art. Motivated in working in both traditional and digital material. Strong communicator with attention to details.

EDUCATION

OHLONE COLLEGE

August 2020–May 2022

- Awarded in 2022 Ohlone College Annual Juried Student Exhibition for 1st Place Awards
- Exhibit works in Group Exhibition of Fall 2021 Student Curatorial Projects, Louie-Meager Art Gallery, Ohlone College

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, SAN DIEGO

Bachelor degree, Visual Arts Studio

Expected June 2024

- Recognized as 2023 Honorable mentions in 2023 Transfer Storytellers Contest

EXPERIENCE

Freelance Artist

2020–present

- Conducted 4 digital artworks commission for game developer and private collectors.
- Produced and uploaded art studies to social media such as instagram every month.
- Networking with other artists to exchange insight on certain topics like WW1 aircraft designs or medieval art crafts.

Leadership Experience

Ohlone College, Fremont, CA

August 2021–November 2021

Curator (Volunteer Curator Experience)

- Coordinated with other artists to design a cohesive exhibition space.
- Curated the exhibited artworks and labels in the gallery.
- Led the preparation for 2D artwork framing and placement.

SKILLS

- Native speaker and writer of Mandarin.
- Pre-intermediate level of Japanese.